

Santen Opens its Shanghai Representative Office

July 7, 2005, Osaka, Japan -- Santen Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (President: Takakazu Morita) announced that it opened its Shanghai Representative Office in China today.

Through its two local offices in Beijing and Guangzhou, Santen has conducted the collection and communication of academic medical information in China. The new Shanghai office will serve the East China region centering on Shanghai, enabling Santen to distribute its drug information and gather information on the medical needs accurately and timely in this region. With the three local offices, Santen endeavors to penetrate its products and Santen brand into the Chinese market.

The Chief Representative for the Beijing and Guangzhou offices serves concurrently as the Chief Representative of the new Shanghai office. The office operates with a staff of 6, including medical representatives.

Information of the new office:

Name: Santen Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Shanghai Representative Office

Address: 1804 Room, Shanghai CIRO's PLAZA, No.388, West Nanjin Road,
Shanghai 200003 P.R.China

Chief Representative: Junichi Mizuno (acting Chief Representative, Beijing and Guangzhou Representative Office)

Area covered by the Shanghai office: East China (Shanghai, Znejiang, Jiangsu, Anhui and Hubei)

###