

Beware of Suspicious E-mails and Messages on Social Media
Claiming to be from Santen Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.

February 27, 2020, Osaka, Japan - It has come to our attention that on multiple occasions companies and individuals have received emails or social media invitations claiming to be from Santen Pharmaceutical or its employees. Santen never seeks business through unsolicited email or social media contact. Please be careful not to be deceived by these fraudulent communications.

If you receive any suspicious offers or invitations, please consult with a nearby police department or public consultation office.
